PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 06/28/2018.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

5 Standard Condition # 1: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On June 21, 2017, Mr. Bouck's conditions of supervision were reviewed with him. He signed his conditions of supervised release, acknowledging an understanding of his conditions of supervision, to include standard condition number 1, as noted above.

Mr. Bouck violated standard condition number 1, by being arrested for possession of methamphetamine on or about July 13, 2018.

According to the Spokane police report, case number 2018-20135548, Mr. Bouck was contacted by officers with the Spokane Police Department and arrested on his federal supervised release warrant. Mr. Bouck had a black backpack in his possession, and while being booked on his warrant at the Spokane County Jail, a correctional officer discovered a small plastic baggie with a white crystal substance hidden inside Mr. Bouck's wallet. The substance tested positive for methamphetamine.
